Two Local Institutions Named in Gillett Will

To Be Fair and Colder. Weather Man Predicts

Recruits Received In M. Urell Camp

The House of Mercy and the Methodist Home of the District are named contingent beneficiaries in the will of Alfred S. Gillett, (ounder and for sixty-five years president of the Girard Fire Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, who died two weeks ago. The estate is bequesthed largely to his wife, who le given power to convey a large property at Wallingford, Pa. to some chartistable organisation. Should she fall to do so, the proceeds are to be divided equally between the two local institutions.

There was no real "bite" in the air today, despite the heavy wind which and walking more or less of a fight with the election of the Girard Fire more or less of a fight with the election of the city early this morning, but subsided before 6 o'clock and there is no prospect that it will related to the Weather Man. Frederick S. Hodgson, of the First District Volunteer Infantry: Thomas F. to convey a large property at Wallingford, Pa. to some chartistable organisation. Should she fail to do so, the proceeds are to be divided equally between the two local institutions.
